Information and advice

We support you to sustain your tenancy, with information and advice on:

- Housing options
- Leases
- Bonds
- Property maintenance
- Rent arrears
- Household living expenses

Advocacy and support

We look out for your rights, making sure your voice is heard. We can help you navigate the housing rental market, including support with:

- Negotiating with your property manager, landlord or housing provider
- SACAT hearings, processes and appeals
- Public and Community Housing processes and appeals

Connection to services

We can provide referrals and information about other services available to you, such as legal advice, financial counselling and mediation services.

Extended support for people under 25

We can help you find the right place and get ready to live independently. We offer support with completing rental applications, viewing properties, living in a sharehouse, and passing routine inspections.
