

Introduction to Construction

Preparation for VET Pathways

RTO 40053

Course Overview

Introduction to Construction is a Preparatory VET Pathway course. Participants will complete White Card Training and prepare for Literacy and Numeracy Comprehensive Assessment (LaNCA) while gaining practical insight into the construction industry.

This Course Involves Training in:

- White Card Training
- Hands on activities from the construction industry
- Preparation for LaNCA, including strategies on how to be successful and what to expect

Prepare to Succeed

We will generate a report for every student who sits their LaNCA providing recommendations on what knowledge and skill development is required.

Career Prospects

Holding a White Card is a requirement for many construction industry jobs. This course also prepares students for Certificate I in Construction and Certificate II in Construction Pathways.
